

SOCIETYS

Diversions for the Week are Many & Varied

MISS ABIGAIL ALISON CAMBELL
MARCEAU PHOTO

MISS MARION W. HALL
CAMBELL STUDIO PHOTO

MISS IRMA MCCLOSKEY
CAMBELL STUDIO PHOTO

MISS EMELINE J. WALKER
L. E. HILL PHOTO

Narragansett Pier since returning from Europe, in October, will arrive in the city to-morrow and will be at No. 16 East 69th street for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Weldon have returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Livingston Hoyt at Staatsburg, N. Y., and are at No. 219 Lexington avenue for the winter.

Mrs. Samuel Milbank will give a debutante luncheon at the Ritz-Carlton on November 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker, who have been at the St. Regis for several weeks, left last week for their home, in Burlington, Cal.

Mrs. Gifford A. Cochran will give a dinner, followed by a dance and supper, in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton on December 15.

Miss Marian W. Hall was introduced to society yesterday afternoon at a reception given for her by her mother, Mrs. Benjamin B. Hall, at her home, No. 15 West 83d street. Mrs. Joseph Baker Bourne gave a dance for Miss Hall on November 9 in the Vanity Fair rooms, No. 4 West 40th street.

Miss Abigail Allison Cambell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. Cambell, of No. 121 Riverside Drive, will be introduced to society during the winter.

GENERAL SOCIAL NOTES

Under the auspices of the Woman's Guild of St. Luke's Church a bazaar will be held in the church rooms, Convent avenue and 11st street, on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings next, and on Friday if either day be rainy. Admission is 10 cents, and a dinner will be served from 6 to 7:30 for 75 cents. There will be many attractive things on sale at the various booths.

Mrs. John Hudson Fowler will have charge of the flower booth, Mrs. Edward M. C. Tower of the ribbons, Mrs. Charles De Cordova of the variety table, Mrs. Frederick T. Weed, Mrs. Robert E. Mertens, Mrs. John P. Leo and Mrs. Thomas N. Hill will be in charge of the booth of fancy and utility articles, Mrs. Willard F. Doolittle will look after the handicraft stall and Mrs. Major A. White after the candies.

Mrs. William H. Wallace is chairman of the painted china, cut glass, brass and bric-a-brac table, and other booths will be: Stationery, Miss Constance Wallace, chairman; grocery, Mrs. William James Fleming; homemade delicacies, Mrs. Gove S. Harrington; booth of mysterious packages, Mrs. Aileen S. Dorsey; Mothers' Guild booth, Mrs. J. Morrison Flavelle, and fortune telling, Miss Anne Sawyer.

The committee in charge of the restaurant is Mrs. F. I. Simpson, Mrs. W. M. Simpson, Mrs. J. A. Krumme, Miss M. Weed, Mrs. R. K. Paynter and Mrs. R. E. Mertens.

The waitresses are Miss Amy Schaefer, Miss O'Loughlin, Miss Stabler, Miss Seggerman, Miss Gleim, Miss Helen Kahrs, Miss Wallace, Miss Dorsey, Miss Pierson, Miss Paynter, Mrs. R. B. Barry, Mrs. H. W. Sykes, Mrs. E. Early, the Misses Couliby, the Misses Simpson and the Misses Oerren.

The Woman's Benevolent and Missionary Society of Mount Morris Baptist Church will hold a bazaar in the church, Fifth avenue, between 126th and 127th streets, on Tuesday evening and Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings, December 2, 3 and 4. Dinner will be served on Wednesday and Thursday evenings at $1 a plate.

Mrs. Theodore C. Wood and Miss A. Matthews.

A Thanksgiving sale for the benefit of Auxiliary No. 11, Stony Wold Sanatorium, will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria on November 20. Miss Ella Louise Henderson is chairman, and, assisting her at the various tables are many well known women. Miss Dorothy A. Stevens is chairman, and Miss Dorothy Clark, vice-chairman, of the college table; Mrs. Charles Appleton Terry and Mrs. Alan D. Kenyon, of the art table; Mrs. F. Frith Pickens and Mrs. J. Malcolm Clark, of the candy table; Miss Frances Littlefield and Miss Grace White are in charge of the handkerchiefs; Miss Ella Louise Henderson and Mrs. L. Collier Lampman, of the miscellaneous booth; Mrs. William Russell Robinson and Mrs. Thomas James Moran, of the tea room; Miss Grace F. Varian and Miss Linda K. Henderson, of the bag table; Mrs. William Henderson and Mrs. George W. Varian, of the home-made delicacies; Mrs. J. W. Adams Abell.

Mrs. LESLIE HULL

of the apron table, and Miss Florence M. Brady and Mrs. Jay Lindley Pyle, of the fancy table.

A sale of Christmas gifts will be held at Delmonico's Roof Garden on Monday, December 1, for the benefit of the Merton Mission, No. 47 Washington street. Among those interested in the sale are Mrs. Charles Emory Smith, Mrs. John Duncan Emmett, Mrs. William Francis Clare, Miss Mary Brown, Mrs. M. B. Stanton, Mrs. John Cohalan, Mrs. Charles W. Tripp, Mrs. T. C. T. Crain, Mrs. T. D. W. Moran, Mrs. William de Riviera, Mrs. J. L. Phillips and Mrs. Frank Sadler, Jr.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, December 2 and 3, at Delmonico's, the Crippled Children's East Side Free School will hold its annual sale and exhibition. Co-operating with them, under the auspices of the Federation of Associations for Cripples, there will be an exhibition of the work of the Brearley League for Cripples, the New York State branch of the Shut-In Society, the Harlem Day Home and School and the Trade School of the Hospital of Hope. Specimens of the handicraft of cripples produced at all these institutions will be displayed, and an opportunity afforded to show the results of skilled training in many branches of trade. Mrs. Albert Seligman is chairman of the committee in charge of the exhibit, and associated with her are Miss Florence S. Sullivan, Mrs. Spencer Lathrop, Mrs. Moses Helman, Miss Louise Baldwin, Dr. Charles H. Jaeger, Dr. Arthur H. Cilley and Mrs. John M. Galloway.

Those representing the Federation of Associations for Cripples are Mrs. George F. Shady, president; Mrs. Henry Goldman, vice-president; Miss Edith M. Bond, treasurer; Miss Eleanor Adler, secretary, and Bishop Greer, Professor Edwin R. A. Seligman, Dr. Edward T. Devine, William J. Schieffelin, Robert W. de Forest, Alfred T. White, Oswald G. Villard and Mrs. Florence Kelley, honorary vice-presidents. The federation has recently been organized and now consists of fourteen of the most prominent associations working for cripples in greater New York.

The Widowed Mothers' Fund Association will give two entertainments at the Hotel Astor to raise funds for the work carried on by the society. The first one will be on November 24, at which there will be dancing by professionals, followed by competitive dancing for prizes, for which the judges will be Mr. and Mrs. Saling Baruch and Mrs. Clayburgh. The prizes will include theatre boxes. The second entertainment will take place on December 5, when there will be motion pictures of Sarah Bernhardt as Queen Elizabeth, English folksongs and professional dancing. Boxes for both entertainments are $5 for lower and $8 for upper ones. Tickets for both entertainments are $5, or on the two persons to one entertainment. The chairman is Mrs. Charles Oppenheim, and assisting her are Mrs. Edward Goodman, Mrs. Charles Henry Isaacs, Miss Annette Kohn, Mrs. Harry Kraft, Mrs.

Henry Meyers, Mrs. Edward Siegman, Mrs. Henry Zuckerman and Mrs. Henry Bodenheimer, treasurer.

The board of managers of the New York Free Home for Convalescents will give a bridge for the benefit of the home at the Hotel Plaza on Monday afternoon, November 24. Among the patronesses are Miss M. V. B. Vanderpool, Mrs. William Brookfield, Mrs. Walter Lester Carr, Mrs. Stuart Crockett, Mrs. Percy Goodsell, Mrs. Harrison Griffin, Mrs. John W. Her- bert, Mrs. Russell W. Moore, Mrs. Isaac McConihe, Mrs. Charles E. Orvis, Mrs. James E. Pope, Mrs. George Wilson Smith, Mrs. Julius H. Seymour, Mrs. John S. Sutphen, Jr., and Mrs. W. Edward Vermilye. Tickets may be had and tables reserved upon application to Miss Vanderpool, No. 39 East 63d street; Mrs. H. C. Van Aken, No. 612 West 115th street, or Mrs. George Wilson Smith, No. 119 Madison avenue.

One of the most interesting social events of the season of the smart set of Flushing and the North Shore of Long Island will be the presentation by Mrs. J. W. Stanley, of Whitestone, of "All-of-a-Sudden Peggy" at the Flushing Good Citizenship League Building, on the evenings of Thursday, November 27, and Saturday, November 29.

The object of the play is to raise a sufficient fund to start a new day nursery on the crowded East Side of Manhattan. The patronesses will be Mrs. Chase Andrews, Mrs. A. De Novellis, Mrs. Ralph Hammer, Mrs. Roland Phillips, Mrs. Frederick Phillips, Mrs. Charles H. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Rickert, Mrs. L. C. Reid, Mrs. Howard Nesmith, Mrs. Charles G. M. Thomas, Mrs. Rupert B. Thomas, Mrs. F. J. Kirpal, Mrs. Joseph Chapin, Mrs. A. M. Trowbridge, Mrs. W. B. Barker, Mrs. Richmond Rochester, Mrs. Philip Posner, Mrs. Robert McElroy, Mrs. D. H. Harrison, Mrs. F. Macmillan Stanton, Mrs. H. E. Brewer, Mrs. L. C. Berrian, Mrs. J. T. Bailey, Mrs. Clarence Bush, Mrs. Lucian Adkins, Mrs. Richard P. Hart, Mrs. William H. Douglas, Mrs. Victor D. Brenner, Mrs. Henry Clay Wilcox, Mrs. William H. Sage, Mrs. Eberhard Faber and Mrs. Geoffrey Kanta.

A largely attended reception was held by the Elmira College Club on Saturday a week ago at the home of Mrs. Francis Bellamy, No. 435 Convent avenue. The decorations were in the college colors, purple and gold. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. George M. Robinson, president of the club; Mrs. Frederick Hamilton Mills, Mrs. Byron A. Kilbourne, Mrs. William Rathbun, Mrs. George Seward, Mrs. Shady, Miss Amelia Davis, Miss Marie B. Cantwell and Miss Julia Roe Davis.

A Christmas tea and sale will be held at Ardley Hall, No. 320 Central Park West, on Saturday, December 13. Mrs. Madison C. Peters is the chairman.

The Canadian Club of New York held its annual dinner and dance at the Hotel Plaza last Tuesday. Over four hundred attended the dinner, including the presidents of all the prominent Canadian clubs in Canada and the United States.

The principal speakers were Lord Campden, of the British Embassy; the Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce and acting Prime Minister of Canada; Charles S. Hamlin, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Washington; the Hon. Louis P. Pelletier, Postmaster General of Canada, and Sir George Paish, of London.

Among those present were Frank A. Vanderlip, Jacob H. Schiff, Frank Trumbull, the Rev. Karl Relland, Joseph T. Martindale, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson Seton, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Garrison Villard, Colonel and Mrs. John S. May, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gleave, Lieutenant Jory, Captain Albert Gleave, Lieutenant Newton, U. S. N.; John Harman, Jr., Rol- langstaff, C. W. Barron, A. B. Leach, W. L. Scoville, Mrs. Edward A. Cruick- shank, Miss Helen Cruickshank, Van Buren Thorne, William G. Fitzwillson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rishel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Malley, William P. Davis, Dr. E. R. L. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson S. Kinnear, Miss Jamie Hearlin, of Wash- ington; Charles Blandy, Jr., and Franklin G. Brown.

E. Medley Scoville, vice-president of the club, was chairman of the banquet committee, which included T. Kennard Thompson, Ernest Thompson Seton, H. F. Bal- lantyne, Alfred Allen Watts, A. P. Gardiner, J. Emery McLean, Edwin B. Beach- am, W. H. Parsons and T. D. Neelands.

Lord Campden, the Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce and acting Prime Minister of Canada, and the Hon. Louis P. Pelletier, Postmaster General of Canada, were entertained at luncheon at the Sleepy Hollow Country Club on Wednesday by E. Medley Scoville, vice-president of the Canadian Club of New York.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thompson Seton, Mr. and Mrs. T. Kennard Thompson, Miss Jamie Hearlin, of Washington; Miss Mary G. Millett, C. W. Barron and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Gardiner. A dinner and theatre party followed the luncheon, after which the Canadian government officials left for Ottawa and Lord Campden returned to Washington.

A series of eight dances will be given this year by the Rubinstein Assemblies, with Miss Mary Jordan Baker acting as hostess. The first one will be held on Friday next in the Astor Gallery of the Waldorf-Astoria. Mrs. William R. Chap- man, president of the Rubinstein Club, and the officers will be the patronesses.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Emeline J. Walker, of No. 256 Car- roll street, Brooklyn, to Dr. Harry M.

Archer, of No. 72 West 82d street, Man- hattan.

Miss Walker is the daughter of Charles Travers Walker. She is especially fond of all outdoor sports and is an expert horse- woman.

Dr. Archer has been for many years chief surgeon of the Aetna Life Insurance Company and honorary surgeon of the New York Fire Department, and is a member of many medical societies and fire Associations, including the International Association of Fire Engineers. He has been a widower for nearly four years.

No date has been set for the wedding, but it will take place at an early date.

Announcement was recently made of the engagement of Miss Irma McCloskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. McCloskey, of No. 305 West 97th street, to Ensign James B. Rutter.

Miss Dorothy Louise Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Irving Williams, was married at the Hotel McAlpin on Wednesday night to Leslie Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hull. The bride's grandfather was the late Henry Dwight Birdsall.

Miss Florence Churchill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roswell Churchill, was married on Tuesday evening at the Hotel St. Regis to William John Cherry. Mrs. William Hibbard was among her attendants.

Another wedding on Tuesday evening was that of Miss Adeline Helene Merz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Merz, to Maurice Bessell Dean, in the Church of the Advent, Broadway and 93d street.

The wedding of Miss Gladys Guggen- heim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Guggenheim, to Roger W. Straus will take place on January 5 in Temple Emanu-El. Mr. Straus is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Straus.

Miss Edith Wormser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Wormser, Jr., of this city, will be married to Matthew Goudchaux, of Paris, on December 15, at St. Moritz, Switzerland, where Mr. and Mrs. Wormser are now staying.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Bruckheimer, of No. 144 West 119th street, who recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Sadie Bruckheimer, to Benjamin E. Stern, will give an at home to-day for the couple.

Mrs. Charles Bartow gave a luncheon at the Hotel Astor last Monday for Mrs. Samuel Eikeles.

for Colonel J. Frank Suppice, the toast- master of the New York Dinner Club banquet held two weeks ago, and for the women of the dinner committee.

Mrs. Henry Baldwin Fischer's card club will have its first meeting of the season at the Hotel Belleclaire on December 12. The other meetings will be on the second and fourth Fridays of the month.

Mrs. Leonard L. Hill gave a dinner on Monday for Mr. and Mrs. Hudson F. Rose at her residence, No. 121 West 83d street. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Seales Rabbitt, Justice and Mrs. Bartow S. Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cameron Grant and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Moffitt.

Mrs. Samuel M. Seymour, of No. 60 Riverside Drive, will give a dinner on Tuesday night at her home.

Mrs. George W. Bonhotal will entertain the Luncheon and Bridge Club to-morrow at her home, No. 259 West 88th street.

Mrs. William Smith Young will give a bridge party on December 11 at her home, No. 300 West 109th street.

Mrs. Floyd S. Corbin will give bridge parties on December 4 and 5 at her apart- ments in Euclid Hall, Broadway and 86th street.

Dr. and Mrs. William Fletcher Stone, who spent the summer abroad, have returned to New York and are at their home in West End avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Smith have taken possession of their home in West 98th street for the winter.

BROOKLYN SOCIAL WEEK

Miss Jean Coutts Bride of Donald Barton Stewart.

Miss Jean McPhail Coutts, daughter of Mrs. George H. Coutts, was married to Donald Barton Stewart yesterday afternoon at the home of her mother, No. 144 Joralemon street. The Rev. Dr. L. Mason Clarke performed the ceremony at 4:30 o'clock, but, owing to the recent death of the bride's father and to the fact that the bridegroom is also still in mourning for his father, Seth Thayer Stewart, only immediate relatives were present. There were no bridal attendants. Mr. Stewart is the son of Mrs. Seth Thayer Stewart, of Brooklyn and Locust Valley, Long Island. He was graduated from Yale in 1908.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meurer gave a dinner dance on Wednesday evening at their home, No. 256 Lincoln Place, for the members of the bridal party which is to serve at the wedding of their daughter, Miss Grace Meurer, and Ira Richards, Jr., next Wednesday afternoon. The table appointments were in rose color, and roses were used in the decorations.

A sister of Mr. Richards, Mrs. Marion Richards Coffin, is to be the matron of honor, and a sister of the bride, Miss Mae Meurer, will be maid of honor. The other attendants of the bride will be Mrs. Henry A. Aikler, Mrs. C. Robinson Duff, of Manhattan; Miss Margaret Pratt, Miss Mildred Zellhoefer and Miss Anna Meurer, the debutante sister of the bride. Jay Freeborn Carlisle is to be best man. The ushers will be Alfred L. Nor-